

NORTHERN LIGHTS BREAK IN LAPLAND

ITINERARY

DAY

1

DAY 1: ARRIVAL & NORTHERN LIGHTS SNOWSHOE EXCURSION

Arrive at Kiruna Airport where you will be met by a driver and transferred to your hotel in Kiruna. After resting up a bit, spend some free time exploring the town. In the evening, bundle up for a refreshing guided snowshoe walk in the wilderness, with breaks at several key spots to hopefully catch a glimpse of the northern lights. Enjoy a hot beverage and a well-earned sandwich before heading back to town.

Spend the night in Kiruna.

Helpful notes:

- Snowshoeing is considered easy, but it does require a good level of fitness. This excursion is not suitable for children.
- Please note the northern lights are a natural phenomenon and sightings cannot be guaranteed.

DAY 2: DOG SLEDDING EXCURSION & AURORA SKY STATION

Experience the thrill of dog sledding today with an experienced guide. At the kennel you will learn to drive your own sled and team of huskies and then you'll follow your guide's lead on the beautiful snowy trails, through the woods and over the plains. After a good ride, enjoy some coffee and a light lunch in front of a campfire.

In the early evening, you will ride in a minibus to Abisko, about 100 km (60 miles) from Kiruna, for an unforgettable evening of natural beauty and gourmet cuisine. The night begins with a chairlift ride up a mountainside to the Aurora Sky Station in Abisko National Park, offering an unspoilt view of the stars above. At the restaurant, indulge in a delicious, Nordic-inspired 4-course dinner, followed by a guided tour to learn about the spectacular northern lights and how to see them. After a wonderful evening at Aurora Sky Station, you will be returned to Kiruna.

Spend the night in Kiruna.

Helpful notes:

- Two people will share one sled and take turns driving.
- The excursion to Aurora Sky Station is not suitable for children.

DAY 3: THE ICEHOTEL & NORTHERN LIGHTS SNOWMOBILE EXCURSION

Start the day with a guided tour of the fascinating ICEHOTEL complex, including the original snow-and-ice structure that is rebuilt each winter. You will also visit the recently built permanent structure, the ICEHOTEL 365, which offers a year-round winter experience inside thanks to solar energy. You'll be able to see an assortment of ice rooms and ice suites as well as the chic ICEBAR, ice church and other creative works of ice and snow.

This evening gives you another chance to search for the northern lights on a guided snowmobile excursion in the wilderness. After some time zooming across the snow, taking turns driving and riding on the snowmobile, enjoy a rustic dinner in a wooden hut around a fireplace. Afterwards your guide will return you to Kiruna.

Spend the night in Kiruna.

Helpful notes:

- The ICEHOTEL opens in mid-December. Until then, all guided tours will be at the ICEHOTEL 365, which is open throughout the year.
- Two people will share one snowmobile and take turns driving. To drive, you must have a valid driver's license.
